About ICI

ICI is a premier professional body dedicated to serving all sectors of the concrete construction industry in India. With a strong network of over 16,000 registered members across 50 regional centers spanning the country, ICI serves as a dynamic platform that unites professionals, academicians, researchers, consultants, contractors, manufacturers, and students associated with the built environment.

ICI actively promotes professional excellence and knowledge dissemination through a wide range of seminars, workshops, conferences, exhibitions, and technical programmes conducted at both national and international levels. The Institute collaborates with globally renowned peer technology and construction practices.

In its commitment towards sustainable development and green construction practices, ICI works closely with several government and research institutions such as Central Building Research Institute, Central Road Research Institute, Indian Roads Congress, Structural Engineering Research Centre, and various State and Central Public Works Departments.

ICI also plays an important role in the formulation and revision of national standards through the active participation of its members in BIS code committees. The Technical Board of ICI publishes valuable technical documents and reference materials prepared by expert committees comprising specialists from diverse disciplines. These publications are widely respected and extensively referred to by the industry.

To support continuous professional development, ICI conducts need-based training programmes for practicing engineers and industry professionals. The Institute also encourages and nurtures students by exposing them to the latest development in concrete technology and construction, thereby enhancing their technical knowledge and employability.

About ICI Awards

The ICI Annual Awards are among the most prestigious recognitions in the concrete and construction industry. Instituted by Indian Concrete Institute, these awards honor outstanding individuals, organizations, projects, and innovations that have made exceptional contributions to the advancement of the industry.

Presented annually during the month of September, the awards celebrate excellence, innovation, leadership, sustainability, and technical achievement across various segments of the construction sector. Nominations are invited from across the nation and undergo a rigorous evaluation process based on stringent criteria established by ICI.

The awards are presented in the presence of eminent industry leaders, distinguished professionals, academicians, and stakeholders from across the construction fraternity. Over the years, the ICI Annual Awards have earned immense credibility and are regarded as highly coveted honors within the industry
